

CORONADO DRESS CODE

The Clark County School District reserves the right to promote that the dress and grooming of students are within the limits of generally accepted community standards and that students shall be required to show proper attention to personal cleanliness. Student's dress, personal appearance, and conduct are required to be of such character as not to disrupt or detract from the educational environment of the school. Any style which tends to diminish instructional effectiveness or discipline control by teachers is not acceptable. The school administration shall have the right to designate which types of dress, fashion, fads, or appearance disrupt or detract from the educational program and may be a potential safety hazard. The principal shall retain the authority to grant exceptions for spirit days and special event dress days. The Clark County School District Dress Code serves to provide guidelines for student dress and appearance at all District schools (whether or not they adopt Standard Student Attire). Students are to be dressed in such a manner that their appearance in the school contributes to the learning environment. Student dress and appearance are to be in accordance with CCSD Regulation 5131 and the specific needs of Coronado High School as listed below.

Any changes made by CCSD Board of Trustees will supersede the rules listed below:

1. Require the wearing of shoes with soles. House slippers and shoes with wheels are not permitted.
2. All clothing must be sufficient to conceal any and all undergarments. No skin will show between bottom of shirt/blouse and top of pants or skirts at any time. All sleeveless shirts must have straps at least three inches wide. Prohibited items include, but are not limited to, crop tops, tank tops, strapless, low-cut clothing, clothing with slits, or tops and outfits that provide minimum coverage, tight or revealing clothing.
3. Require that all shorts, skorts, skirts, and jumpers/dresses must be at fingertip length, with or without tights or leggings. Tops/sweaters worn with leggings must be at fingertip length.
4. All jeans, pants, and trousers must be secured at waist level. Sagging is strictly prohibited. Jeans, pants, and trousers are not to have rips or tears that expose undergarments and/or are located mid-thigh or higher.
5. Headgear (hats, hoods, caps, bandanas, hair grooming aids, etc.) is not permitted on campus except for designated school approved uniforms, special events, authorized athletic practices, documented medical conditions, bona fide religious reasons, or CCSD/school sanctioned activities.
6. Slogans or advertising on clothing, jewelry, buttons, and/or accessories which by their controversial, discriminatory, profane, and/or obscene nature disrupt the educational setting are prohibited.
7. Any clothing, jewelry, buttons, and/or accessories that promote illegal or violent conduct, or affiliation with groups that promote illegal or violent conduct such as, but not limited to, the unlawful use of weapons, drugs, alcohol, tobacco, or drug paraphernalia, or clothing that contains threats are prohibited.
8. Spiked or studded clothing, jewelry, and/or accessories including wallet chains are prohibited.
9. Outerwear such as coats, mittens, and scarves must be removed upon entering the classrooms/buildings. Administrators, teachers, and staff may use their discretion as appropriate based on the temperature in the facility.
10. Visible jewelry, studs, and other similar items which are attached by body or facial piercing that are considered by the administration to be a safety issue or disruption will be prohibited.
11. Military attire such as fatigues, camouflage dress, military dress coats, etc. are not to be worn at Coronado High School.
12. Pajamas are prohibited.

* School-sanctioned uniforms must meet dress code requirements if worn during instructional time. This may require the wearing of warm-ups over shorts and/or skirts.

Any student violating the dress code will not be allowed to attend class. The principal shall retain the authority to grant exceptions for special occasions and/or special conditions.
