1.0 Basic Matters of Business:

- 1.1 Approval of Minutes: The group reviewed minutes from the February 8th meeting. Minutes reported that next meeting was April 19th. Should have read March 22nd. Michelle Tidball made motion to approve minutes with this correction. Prudence Kowalski seconded motion. Motioned approved with 10-0 vote.

2.0 New Items to Address:

- 2.1 School staffing projections: Mr. Piccininni gave the following updates regarding staffing for the 2018-2019 school year:

-10 teachers are leaving after this school year; 2 transferring for personal reasons; 8 leaving district

-Teachers have been hired for the following vacancies-
2 Math, 1 English, 1 Band, 1 Theater Arts, 1 History, 1 Autism

-Currently 4 vacancies-
1 Social Studies, 1 PE, 1 Biology/Chemistry

-There are 3 weeks left for internal transfer, followed by surplus and then positions are available to new hires (out of district; newly graduated)

2.2 Financial update

-Teachers currently developing supply wish lists for 2018-2019. These supplies are purchased under 2017-2018 budget.

-Mr. Piccininni getting bids to resurface basketball courts outside near tennis courts. Roughly $10,000 to complete. Football and soccer fields currently in good shape.

-May need to replace at least one copy machine ($13,000 each). Coronado makes 25-30 million copies each year.

2.3 School Improvement Plan update

-Coronado faculty looking to devise a plan to address the extremely competitive nature of today's students and focusing on student mental health/well being. Priority is to reevaluate how Coronado is achieving and to help students find a better balance.

3.0 General Discussion:

3.1 April's agenda items were discussed. School administration will give an update on general staffing.
