

Mr. Coronado Application and Information

What Is Mr. Coronado?

Mr. Coronado is an all-male high school pageant which makes fun of pageantry for charity. Each boy selected to be a contestant in the Mr. Coronado pageant will choose a charity that is personal to them and raise money for it throughout the Mr. Coronado spirit week. All money raised goes to the charity of the pageant winner. Each contestant will need to explain why the charity is important to him and know something about the cause.

Contestants must be willing to stand out and be funny, and he must have a talent prepared for the talent portion of the pageant. Contestants must perform in the opening dance number with their pageant escort. Contestants will also be expected to maintain good communication with the committee chairpersons for Mr. Coronado, as needed. Contestants are also expected to participate in the extra activities associated with Mr. Coronado (rehearsals, dress-up days, ticket selling, advertising, and lunch time competitions). It is imperative that all candidates take note of the following dates and agree to the commitment once they turn in the Mr. Coronado application.
